THANK YOU

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for the beautiful quilt. Every time I look at it, I will think of my church family. I appreciate all that this church has done for me since I've joined this congregation.

Love, Madison Landefeld

Everything We Need

Abby and I are away this week on a vacation together. Every time we take a trip, there's always a rush to gather everything needed for the time we'll be away. Sometimes, it's easy and standard: clothes, shoes, and toiletries. Other times, it's more complicated: kids toys, snacks, gifts for family, etc.

There's nothing worse than getting halfway down the road and realizing you forgot something. It's even worse when that something isn't able to be easily replaced by running to the store and buying another of whatever it is you forgot. You can't just go and replace the Christmas presents you left back home; you can't just buy another apple pie you made for the family get together. And, if you're anything like me and you hate to come unprepared, it will bug you for the rest of your trip.

Fortunately, for us, God hasn't set up life like that. I love how Peter starts out his second letter: "His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence..." (II Peter 1:3) God has given us everything we need. We're never truly unprepared, left alone, neglected, or made to go without. God has blessed us with His Word to guide how we live. He's given us the Holy Spirit for power in defeating sin. God has given us all things for life and godliness. The question becomes, are we taking advantage of what He has given us?
