Russell Jerry Roth family

To the Congregation,

Thank you so much for the love and support shown towards our family during Mom’s illness. Your Christian love and encouragement gave us all the strength to fight “the good fight” and finish the race.

A special thanks to those who prepared a lovely meal for us and for use of the fellowship hall. We look forward to rejoining our Christian family.

The Bosleys

Thank you for all of the prays for my mother, Norma Harmon.

In the Hand of God

Faith Over Fear

I am inwardly fashioned for faith, not for fear. Fear is not my native land; faith is. I am so made that worry and anxiety are sand in the machinery of life; faith is the oil. I live better by faith and confidence than by fear, doubt and anxiety. In anxiety and worry, my being is gasping for breath--these are not my native air. But in faith and confidence, I breathe freely--these are my native air. A John Hopkins University doctor says, "We do not know why it is that worriers die sooner than the non-worriers, but that is a fact." But I, who am simple of mind, think I know; We are inwardly constructed in nerve and tissue, brain cell and soul, for faith and not for fear. God made us that way. To live by worry is to live against reality.*

Today

Today, I will live as if it is the most important day I possess, because it is actually the only day I have.

Today I will whine and complain less. I will be thankful more, because I know that gratitude makes a better person out of me.

Today, I will criticize less and praise more, because the people I love need to know that I love and approve of them

Today, I will take more time with God my Father and less with earthly pleasures. I know that I need His strength and guidance.

Today, I will pray more and play less. I want my heavenly Father to know my heart, to hear my concerns, and to realize how thankful I am to be His child.

Today, I will remember my brother more and myself less. I will consider his feeling, his needs and wants more and my own a little less.

Today I will speak of Jesus more and my other interests less. Today, He must increase, and I must decrease (John 3:30)

Today, I will remember the souls of all men. I will remember the person who is rude to me still has an eternal soul. I will remember the youth and the weak might see me do something wrong and imitate it. I will remember that my good may encourage another to do right.

Today, I will remember that I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me. Today I will live by faith in the one who loved me and gave Himself for me.
