Rescued from Death

This morning we began a new series through Romans 7 and 8 entitled: "Victory in Christ." In these two chapters, Paul lays out his own version of the gospel message and shows us how we have been blessed with hope in Jesus. Paul never wrote a gospel, but in sections such as Romans 7 and 8 he explains the hope that we have as believers in Christ.

If you've ever had a near death experience, you know the overwhelming feeling of relief after going through one. There is nothing like the feeling of getting through something where you felt like your life was in danger. The gratitude for the outcome not being worse is hard to explain. Adrenaline courses through your body, you are shaking. Maybe you even started to cry. The body has a number of different responses to trauma and its after-effects.

Whether you have nearly died physically or not, all of us have nearly died. The Bible makes it pretty clear where we were headed before we met Christ. All of us were enemies of God (Rom. 5:10) and heading to hell (Rom. 6:23). Thank God that's not where our stories ended! Each Sunday, we gather as the redeemed who have been rescued from the darkness of an eternity without our Creator. Each Sunday, we gather to remember our "near death experience" that was taken away from us by Jesus on the cross. We celebrate because we have been rescued from death!

Thank You

Through the smiles of all the orphan children that you have touched with your giving, we know they are grateful and know that someone out there really loves them.

Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor.

Thank you and may God continue to bless you richly for all you have done and are doing for the orphan children.

Kindness: The Forgotten Virtue

“And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.” - Ep 4:32

Sometimes, in our quest to do and teach what is right, we forget the manner in which we are to do it and teach it. We love the Lord and strive to live by His precepts – and we expect others to do the same. But, when they fall short of our lofty expectations, we hammer them over the head with the proverbial two-by-four. One ‘proof text’ for those of this mindset is the twenty-third chapter of Matthew – the ‘woe chapter’. Jesus verbally assaulted His audience, so we figure we have license to do the same. And yes, there is a time to ‘shuck the corn’. But, Jesus did so only after years of patient effort, and after the Pharisees had proven themselves to be spiritually dishonest. There is no support in this passage for verbally abusing a weak brother in Christ. The teacher of babes must be “gentle” and “patient” (2 Tim. 2:24). People struggle with many difficulties in their lives– some of which we may be totally unaware. So yes, be blunt in dealing with sin, and never compromise conviction. But, in the doing of it, never forget to “be kind to one another”.
