Monroe/Noble Stepping Stones are selling Texas Roadhouse items as a fundraiser for OVU. They have the frozen dinner rolls for $5 per dozen and an 8 oz. cinnamon butter for $2 per container. The last day to order is February 19th and the money will be collected when the items are delivered, which will be before Easter. Thank you for your support. If you want to place an order, contact Merna Bettinger or Leah Hickenbottom.

There are also still 3 bags of walnuts available at $10/bag available in the back of the church if you're interested.

Thank You

A Deeper Love

This morning is a rare event—Valentine’s Day falls on a Sunday! Valentine’s Day is a day we traditionally think about romantic relationships and our love for each other as human beings. Marriage between a man and a woman was designed to be the highest expression of intimacy and connection as human beings. I find it really interesting that marriage is instituted before the Fall in Genesis. God has relationship with His creation, but He also wants His creation—human beings—to enjoy connection together. This is why we see God creating another human being, a partner, for Adam.

As deeply as we love our spouses, there is a love that goes even deeper than marriage. God’s love for us surpasses any human relationship and is fully demonstrated in the giving of His Son, Jesus. When my dad was sick, my Mom said something on the phone I’ll never forget. “You know, Scott, as much as I love your father, God loves him more.” That simple thought gave my mother comfort—that even though she could not be there physically with him to love him, there was One who was always present that loved my dad even more than she ever could.

Do you know this deeper love? Maybe you’ve never made the decision to follow Christ. You need to know that no matter if you ever decide to follow Him or not, He will always love you more deeply than any human being ever will. Maybe you’ve been a Christian most of your life, but you struggle to feel the love of God. Guilt, regret, doubts, or a difficult past haunt you and it’s hard for you to imagine there is Someone who loves you so. He does. He loves you still, despite your flaws and mistakes.

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Bible Class Suggestions

There is a wooden box in the foyer, on the buffet, if you have an idea or thought for a Bible class that you would like Scott to cover, please drop the idea in the box in the back.

A decorative banner with red hearts hanging from a string against a light wood background. The hearts are of various sizes and are arranged in a slightly wavy line.

I pray that you, being rooted and firmly established in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the length and width, height and depth of God's love, and to know Christ's love that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Ephesians 3:17-19
