Honoring Our Quilters

“All the skilled women spun with their hands, and brought what they had spun, in blue and purple and scarlet material and in fine linen” ----- Exodus 35:25.

For so many generations, the skilled ladies of the Woodsfield church of Christ have labored and created beautiful quilts for our family here. “For where 2 or 3 are gathered together in my name, there I am among them.” they gathered and fellowshiped for over 25 years making quilts for graduates, community members in need, nursing home residents, and even families in India.

What an amazing act of love these women displayed. Our most accurate account has a record of over 242 quilts fashioned for our graduates. It would suffice to say that nearly every member here had a quilt made for them or for their children. Like so many acts of kindness in the church, these ladies never boast or make a big display of their works..... they piled cushions higher, ignored their split rough nails, and endured the stiff necks with not a word of despair.

Many of our quilters have passed on and a few remain with us today. But every single one of them will attest to “a quilter’s quilting friends are some of the dearest, most generous, and most supportive people she will ever know.”

To the best of our knowledge, below is the list of the ladies that have served as quilters: Irene Christman, Inez Lanier, Vivian Hines, Lois Griffin, Blanche Baker, Theica Weddle, Rose Saffle, Wanda Zonker, Gladys Landefeld, Betty Mercer, Wilma Bott, Nada Beardmore, Doris Lude, Ruth Camden and most recently, Cathy Bunting, Mary Henthorn, Goldie Chaplin, Jean Antill and Eleanor Lallathin.

These ladies and their quilts are “knit together in love and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God.”

A thank you does not seem to suffice for all the labors of love these ladies have crafted over the past years. Just know that we love you and neither you nor your many quilts will be forgotten. The quilts you bound together have bound the hearts of all of us here. You will always be the most beautiful square that makes up the Woodsfield church of Christ quilt.
