M.A.G.I Project

Starting in the month of July we are going to have a donation tote in the back of the church for the M.A.G.I. ministry. Each month we will list a new item we would like to be donated for the M.A.G.I project. In July, we are asking for crayons and coloring books ages 2-7 and we have set a goal to reach 100 boxes of crayons and 100 coloring books. If you would still like to do your own personal M.A.G.I box for a child, we encourage that, please contact the office to pick up a box!

Can I Get a Witness?

Most of us are familiar with the term “witness”—a person describing an event firsthand is considered a witness, a legal proceeding often requires witnesses, etc. The word actually shows up in Scripture, just not in a way we typically think of. The word for “martyr” actually means “witness.” The idea being, of course, that someone who dies for their faith witnesses or testifies to those who observe their death of the importance God that had in their life.

As we talked about sharing your story this morning, I couldn’t help but think of the ways in which we do this over the course of our lives, or even through our death. Through both how we live and also, God forbid, how we die, we testify or witness to others the importance of our faith. How would others see your life or death? Would they see it as a testimony, a witness, to God’s power and your devotion to Him?

If someone can’t see from the way we live and die that God is important to us, why would we ever expect or hope they would follow Him too? If God isn’t important enough to us to be noticed by other people observing our lives, we can’t be the kind of witnesses needed to share our faith with the world.

V.B.S. Recap

A huge THANK YOU to all that made Knights of North Castle shine! The teachers, decorations, crafters, preacher, puppeteers, techies, leaders, donators, kithcheneers, bakers, behind the scenes and recreation. So many contributed to make this a success, but most of all thanks all the newly dubbed knights! We love our children!
