Thank You

To the ladies that quilted Winston's blanket, thank you. It is beautiful, and I can't tell you how much it means to us. To some it might just seem like a blanket, but we know the work, time and effort it takes to make a quilt and we are so grateful. Every patch placed was placed with love and the thought of a child in mind. I pray one day Winston will appreciate the love that was put into this blanket. I know Ryan and I do. Thank you. Your work does not go unnoticed and believe me it means a lot - a graduation gift, a wedding gift, a baby gift. A quilt is something that can last a lifetime, and I can't wait to tell Winston about the wonderful ladies that made him this quilt were the exact same ladies that helped raise his mom and teach her about our Lord and Savior.

-With Love, Ryan, Whitney, and Winston

Baby Shower

There will be a baby shower for Whitney and baby Winston Rothacher on Sunday, September 12th at 2:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Building. All the ladies of the congregation are invited to attend. If you would like to give on a gift please see Linsey Colvin, Chris Christman or Stephanie Gauding.

Bulletin Bloopers

Usually, I use this space to share something thoughtful, encouraging, convicting, etc. Every so often, something comes to me that fits none of those categories I mentioned but this is just too good not to share. This was shared with me, and I thought you would enjoy these bulletin bloopers as well. The next time you see a typo in the bulletin, remember this—it could be worse!

- Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.
- The outreach committee has enlisted 25 visitors to make calls on people who are not afflicted with any church.
- Ushers will eat latecomers.
- The Rev. Merriwether spoke briefly, much to the delight of the audience.
- The pastor will preach his farewell message, after which the choir will sing, “Break Forth Into Joy.”
- Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our church and community.
- During the absence of our pastor, we enjoyed the rare privilege of hearing a good sermon when J.F. Stubbs took over our pulpit.
- The church garage sale will be held this Saturday. This is a good chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.
- Weight Watchers will meet in the basement at 7:00 pm. Please use the large double doors at the side entrance.
