Divorce and Remarriage

I'm hoping a little humor at the front end will lighten the load on the back end of our sermon today. I actually considered dressing like this for church this morning, but I couldn't find my suit of knight's armor... In all seriousness, this lesson hits so many of us. In today's world, it is rare for someone NOT to have divorce in their family somewhere. Because of the prevalence of divorce in our society and the shrapnel that results from failed marriages, we all have been affected. Family dynamics, holiday schedules, financial burdens, everything. It changes our perspectives on what's biblical for divorce, our expectations for our own marriage, our fears for our children, our emotional well-being—even our ideas about God. The tentacles of divorce are long and insidious. I have been affected by them in my own family. This subject is personal for me.

This morning, I will share with you what I believe the Bible teaches on the issue. I want you to know, however, that my views on this subject do not change my love for or fellowship with anyone in this church. I will not treat or think of you any differently, no matter your marriage history or status. Jesus' posture toward the woman at the well in John 4 (who had been married and divorced multiple times) should be our way of relating to each other on this issue. My aim this morning is to be honest with what I believe God says about this issue, while doing so in a loving and sensitive manner. Divorce hurts, period. My prayer for today is that you will be challenged by God's Word, encouraged by His forgiveness, and called to a higher standard as we try to be more like Him.

Orphans Lifeline International Mission Update

ORPHAN'S LIFELINE INT'L
 Saving, Rebuilding and Healing Broken Lives

2021 Orphan & Widow Family Unit Profile
Keep a Family Together!

Widow & Children names:
 Beatrice Chelangat 39 years old
 Felex 20 years old
 Micah 13 years old
 Noah 11 years old
 Daisy 8 years old
 Sandra 6 years old

Location: Nairobi Slums, Kenya

Special Health Needs: Good nutritious food and walking aids for Beatrice.

Initial Assessment:
 Beatrice is physically weak because of her crippled leg and is uneducated with no skills for employment. Her husband recently passed away leaving her with 5 children to raise on her own with nothing. The hut in the background is where she is being allowed to live by a poor resident that sees the family's needs and has pity on them. None of the children are currently going to school because of the lack of money. Education is not part of the tax structure so they have to pay for each child out of their own pocket. No money, no school and education is their only way out of poverty in the future.

The church currently sends monthly support to Orphans Lifeline International through the Mission budget. The congregation is now supporting a family in need, in Kenya, through Orphans Lifeline. We will receive periodic updates on this family through Orphans Lifeline and they will be posted in the bulletin and in the back of the church as it is received.
