Pregnancies

Kirsten Rouse, Jacklynn Rose, Haylee Carothers, Kellie Miller (Lori Rossiter's daughter)—for their health and the health of the children they are carrying.

* Please update the office of any changes to those on the prayer list. We update the prayer list periodically, removing names if we have not received recent updates on that person.

Congratulations

Bob & Lois Kenney are great-grandparents again; Reid and McKenzie Love had a son, Elliot Eugene. Elliot was born Thursday, February 17, 2022, and everyone is doing well.

Membership

Walton Chrisman from Indiana, PA, has placed membership with the Woodsfield Church of Christ. He is a friend of Bob Burrow, for more information please contact Bob.

Feed The Flock

The Feed the Flock Fellowship is this Wednesday, March 2, 2022, at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Building. This will be a potluck dinner and the church will provide chicken and drinks. Join us for dinner and bring a friend!

Just Ask

“Let us know if you need anything.” You ever heard that phrase before? It’s usually an open offer made by someone who wants to help but doesn’t know how. Often, people want to help us but they need us to tell them how they can best meet our needs. The difficulty, of course, is that we often don’t want to ask for help. To come back to that individual and say, “I need _____”, is difficult and humbling. For most of us, we feel like we are admitting weakness or that we can’t take care of ourselves.

In multiple places in the Gospels, Jesus’ message is, “just ask.” If you need something, ask (Matt. 7:1-11, 21:22; Mark 10:51). The problem we often have is we want to fix it on our own. How about just asking our Father? He owns the cattle on a thousand hills (Ps. 50:10)—what is there that He couldn’t do for us? Maybe it would be good for us to be humble and ask. We might find what we’re looking for, and work on our pride in the process.

World Bible School Update

Many years ago, Brady and Louise Smith ran the World Bible School ministry. When they passed away, Mary Henthorn took over and did a wonderful job. Brother Mark Henthorn has been having health problems and it is difficult to find interest in the work of World Bible School.

This ministry has won many souls to God and the church family is to be commended for all the support and work that has been done in the past. Right now, the church will no longer be sending out any World Bible School work due to lack of interest. In the future, the Woodsfield Church of Christ may start the World Bible School ministry up, but for now we thank all who were involved and ask for your prayers to other churches involved in World Bible School.

Small Group News

Small groups will start the beginning of April. These will likely last through the Spring and Summer alongside the regular Sunday night Bible study.

V.B.S. Meeting

There will be a V.B.S meeting Sunday, March 13, 2022, immediately following morning services at the front of the church. This meeting is going to be brief; it is to discuss possible dates for V.B.S., theme, and interest. If you have any questions or are interested in helping, please contact Merna Bettinger.
