Thank You

Church family,

Thank you so much for putting together the most beautiful bridal shower for me. Bailey and I are extremely blessed by your encouragement, love, and support! We appreciate your generosity and well wishes as we prepare to begin this new adventure. I ask that you keep Bailey and I in your thoughts and prayers.

With a grateful heart, Olivia Gauding

Church family,

Jared & I want to thank everyone who has thought & prayed for a healthy pregnancy & a little boy. We can't say how much it means to us as we are finally in the home stretch. We also want to thank everyone who was able to come help us shower our little boy & sent gifts to our home. He is a very loved boy already. A special thank you to Steph Gauding, Chris Christman & Linsey Colvin for hosting a great shower.

Love, Jared & Jacklynn Rose

The Last One

This morning, we will cover Jesus' Last Supper with His disciples. It was a celebration of the Jewish Feast of Passover, but it would also be the last meal they would eat together before His death. By all accounts, the disciples don't seem to realize this. They continue eating and acting as if it was just another meal. Even though Jesus had warned them continually over the last year that his time was short, they are oblivious to this and carry on with business as usual. In just a few very long hours, however, it would all be different.

That's how it usually works, doesn't it? When we are participating in the "last" of anything, we typically don't realize what is happening. The last meal, the last vacation, the last visit, the last... We carry on through these things, not realizing that it won't happen again. Maybe we get too old, or a loved one dies, or everyone loses interest to do it again. Whatever the reason, everything has an end, eventually.

Before we go too far down this depressing road, let me stop and say that's why we need to enjoy each moment we have. We are not guaranteed another chance, another trip, another opportunity. God has blessed us with today—let's enjoy it! There's an old saying, supposedly by Eleanor Roosevelt, that says this: "Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. Today is a gift; that's why they call it the present."

Are you enjoying what you have, while you have it? It's easy for us to take things for granted. Enjoy the gift of today.

Food Truck Party V.B.S. Is Here!

Vacation Bible School starts this evening at 6:00 p.m. for ages 3 and up!

Each evening of VBS, there will be a parenting class in the auditorium from 6-7:30pm. We will be using a video series called “Engage: Navigating Parenting in a Social Media Age” with Kirk Cameron. Come join us and invite a friend!

There will be a friendly class competition for Vacation Bible School. Each night of V.B.S. the children are asked to bring an item for the M.A.G.I project.

Sunday: Coloring Book ages 2-7;

Monday: Children’s flip flops;

Tuesday: Matchbox cars & trucks;

Wednesday: Jump ropes

Thank You

Thank you to everyone who sent cards, messages and gifts to my family and prepared food for my brother, Marvin Wiley’s, funeral dinner. The love and support of this church means so very much to me and family and is greatly appreciated. A special thank you to Donna Ault, Merna Bettinger, Linda McConnell, and Lisa Jones for organizing and serving the meal on Tuesday.

In Christian Love, Sherry Lallathin & Family
