What Kind of Christian are you?

Some are like the weather... unstable and ever-changing.

Some are like neon signs ... they keep going on and off.... on and off... on and off

Some are like footballs... likely to bounce anywhere!

Some are like cats... more content when they are petted.

Some are like wheelbarrows ... they require pushing!

Some are like balloons Full of wind and ready to explode!

Some are like the rock of Gibraltar ... firm and unmovable!

Some are like falling [or fallen] leaves... carried away with the slightest wind of doctrine.

Some are like a dead battery ... no energy or power!

Some are like kites ... they need a string on them to keep them from flying away!

Some are like a candle under a bushel ... useless!

Some are like canoes They need paddling.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. (1Corinthians 15:58)

If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; (Colossians 1:23)

Talking and Walking

You can talk the talk, but can you walk the _____? Most of us could fill in the blank at the end of that sentence with “walk.” Practicing what you preach has become an invaluable tool in a modern world that values transparency and authenticity. If you say it, you must be able to live it also.

This morning, we’re looking at a prime example of failing to walk the talk. In the last hours of Jesus’ life, the disciples have unknowingly made some pretty bold statements—promising Jesus they would die with him, they would never leave him, and they would never deny him. Within a matter of hours, all these promises became meaningless as the disciples fled in the Garden as Jesus was arrested.

Instead of being critical, perhaps we should look inside of ourselves...would we have done the same? Do we have failures of our own where we make bold statements but fail to back them up? Does the world see in us a true disciple committed to living the words of Jesus, whatever the cost? Can we walk the talk?
