Your Help is Needed!

Last year, thanks to the generosity of the church family, we were able to send 100 MAGI boxes to bless children who without this program may not receive a gift for Christmas and would go without basic necessities. This year, in an effort to fill these boxes with as many items as possible we will be collecting in a couple different ways. The goal for the church is still 100 boxes but we want to fulfill the list this year! Let's bless these kids in the best way we know how!

Here's how you can help!

1. Each month, we will have a designated item/items to collect and place in the bins in the back of the church. These items will include warm weather outfits, hygiene products, basic school supplies, and small fun gifts. There will be announcements and notes in the bulletin each month for the items we are collecting. The goal is to gather items when they may be plentiful in stores and hopefully on sale!
2. Not a shopper? That's ok! We learned last year that there are some items that make more sense financially for us to order in bulk from distributors and online retailers. We will have a special collection box in the back of the foyer for monetary donations to go straight to this ministry to buy items that are most needed.

This month's selected items will be warm weather outfits. We aim to provide each child with a new outfit (shirt, shorts/skirt or dress, underwear, and flipflops). In the back of the church, we have placed the giving tree just like we do at Christmas, each tag will have listed boy or girl and an age range. Please consider picking out a child (or as many as you feel led to select) and shopping for them. Stores are marking down summer styles, so now is the time to purchase these items so we can bless the most children possible!

If you have questions, please contact Sherri Lallathin or Ra Lene Henthorn.

Thank you for your help!

While We Were Still Sinners

This past week I've been dealing a lot with the crucifixion in preparation for the sermon. Whenever I review the details of what Jesus went through as a victim of crucifixion, I'm always in awe. I'm in awe of the level of torture and pain developed by men to inflict on someone else as punishment. I'm in awe of just how agonizing the entire process was for Jesus, not just the actual crucifixion. And, I'm in awe that He knew full well what He was about to do and He decided to follow through anyway.

That last statement led me to remember a passage from Romans 5:8, "But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Jesus didn't wait for us to be worthy of His pain and suffering. He chose the cross in spite of our unworthiness. If we were in Jesus' situation, we would probably want to know that that level of pain and suffering was going to go to a good cause, towards someone who would be aware of the sacrifice and grateful enough to live accordingly. However, Jesus not only knew the intensity of pain and suffering He was about to undergo, He also knew that most people in the history of the world would live and die not caring one bit about it. And still, He chose to go to the cross. While we were sinners. While we were ungrateful. While we were unaware. While we were unworthy.

He loved us that much.
