Pregnancies

Please keep Rachel Jackson and Amanda Antill in your prayers—for their health and the health of the baby they are carrying.

* Please update the office of any changes to those on the prayer list. We update the prayer list periodically, removing names if we have not received recent updates on that person.

PROMOTION
SUNDAY

Bible Class Promotions

Sunday August 27th at 9:00 a.m. we will be having the Bible class promotion presentation. All Bible classes will meet in the main auditorium and there will be no Bible classes that morning. Please come join us, encourage, and celebrate with the children as they are promoted to their new Bible class.

August 28th, 7:00 p.m.- 8:30 p.m. in the Educational building teen room. The program is 13 weeks, this is a no cost program and is open to anyone who is interested in joining. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer to give an idea of how many may be attending.

Finding Purpose

This morning we kick off a two-part series called, “Finding Purpose.” I think everyone at some point wants/needs to know what the meaning of their life is. We think that only philosophers and PhDs ask questions like, “What is the meaning of life?” but the truth is that each of us, in our own way, want to know why we’re here. Having purpose and feeling like your life is heading somewhere meaningful is important for everyone, and the good news is that as Christians we have a purpose straight from our Creator! This week and next we’ll be looking at first, “Why am I here?” and second, “Living with Purpose.” We’ll first look at the reason for our being and, next, what do we do with that reason. Billy Sunday, a revival preacher, once said, “More men fail through lack of purpose than lack of talent.” As we start this series, ask yourself some questions: “Do I know my purpose?” “Where am I headed?” “Am I living intentionally or accidentally?”
