Deart Brethern,
You're a true blessing to the children here. I greatly appreciate your steadfast support. I want to thank you for your recent generous gift of $1,853.00

God is changing lives in this home and you're an improtant part of that. We don't just need money to spend or to meet the budget. We need resources to make an eternal difference in the lives of children.

Psalms 82:3 tells us, "Vindicate the weak and fatherless; Do justice to the afflicted and destitue." You have done that with your gift to the children here. May God continue to bless you in all that you do.

For the Children,

Sunday November 17th is Orphan Sunday with the Orphans Lifeline International ministry. If you would like to send a special donation to that ministry there are flyers in the foyer with information on how to do so. It also explains the work they do and how they minister to the orphans and how the funds and donations are used to help those in need.

Adversity is something we all will have to deal with at one time or another. In this article I would like to explore a few biblical examples of how we can deal with adversity in a Godly manner. These examples of overcoming adversity in the scriptures can serve as a guide or blueprint on how we can overcome difficult situations in our own life.

Philippians 4:13 NKJV [13] I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Consider this verse in the book of Philippians. As Paul wrote this, he was imprisoned and facing significant challenges. In the face of challenges Paul relied on the Lord for his strength and comfort. And this is what allowed him to overcome his circumstances. Are you relying on the Lord to find your strength in trying times as Paul did? Or are you turning to worldly solutions that may seem like the easy way out? Turn to the Lord in your challenging times and let him be your strength. Now let's consider another example from the book of James.

James 1:2-4 NKJV [2] My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, [3] knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. [4] But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

James is encouraging believers to see trials as an opportunity for growth. When we look for opportunities to turn tough times into opportunities to grow, we begin to create the process that will strengthen our faith and build character. Building up character will serve as the foundation for us to grow closer to Christ no matter the situation.

Isaiah 41:10 NKJV

[10] Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

In this verse from the book of Isaiah, God is reassuring the Israelites during their time of exile and hardship. This verse serves to remind us that God's presence and support are constant, providing strength and courage in difficult times. Similar to the Israelites, the Lord provides us his constant support and grace during our individual trials.

Finally let's explore the 8th chapter of the book of Romans where Paul was addressing early Christians who were under persecution. Romans 8:28 NKJV states, [28] And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.

This verse was used to reassure Christians during a time of persecution. Meaning you could lose your life for being a Christian. But for those who love him and are called to his purpose, he is able to bring good out of situations filled with adversity. Now we are not being persecuted in the same way, God still delivers us from any situation. Lean in to him and seek his grace and mercy. Not only in difficult times, but all of the time. Fervently seek him and he will be with you in all things!
